or cause, will be allowed during the duration of the funeral ceremonies. Any signs of demonstrations are to be broken up immediately by police in an "inconspicuous" fashion.

5. Detailed planning is still proceeding among US and German security officials. The ceremonies in and around the Cologne cathedral on Tuesday, 25 April will probably present the most problems for security officials, due to the expected large crowds, the number of officially invited guests which now total 1,800, and the narrow streets in the cathedral area. The police are planning to block off the entire area but the streets will still be congested because of the number of dignitaries. All surrounding buildings in the area will be searched and placed under police control.
